WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY [illegible] 1862.

"Free Homesteads

The Administration and its friends made up of Union men have [illegible] the pledge long since made that the Government shall give from its ample domains to American loyal citizens lands on which to rear homes for themselves and families, at the simple cost of $10 necessary to compensate the proper officer for making out the records and title papers. The only conditions in the case on the part of the claimant are that he shall be of lawful age, an American citizen, or declared his determination to become such, and a loyal man or woman, as the case may be.

What a prospective blessing to the poor of our nation—whether poor from misfortune or by inheritance!

Come from the East and the West—from the North and the South—from across the broad ocean [illegible] select your lands and become with us in the most enlarged sense, landholders independent American citizens.

This great national measure for the elevation of our people—designed to secure to all what is necessary for the highest development of our minds, it should be remembered in all time, WAS CONSUMMATED IN THE [illegible] YEAR OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN!

We have duly noticed one [illegible] effort to mar the general joy in carrying into effect the Homestead Law. The [illegible] [illegible] is that the law is only for the benefit of loyal citizens and asks how this rule of law could be applied in the case?

To us the question of the [illegible] is readily answered. It seems to us that no one but traitors would contend that traitors should realize benefits from the Homestead Law. There can be no difficulty in ascertaining the [illegible] of the applicant, his claims to citizenship, and if the case requires it, whether if foreign born he has declared his determination to become a citizen. The only difficult matter will be to determine his loyalty, and this can be done. This nation for months has been engaged in a civil war—the effort being on the part of the rebels to break up the Government and establish one of their own form.

The applicant for land should be required to swear that he has not sympathized with the rebels, that he has not justified their act of rebellion, that on no occasion has he declared that if he were in the South he would be with the rebels, that he has not furnished rebels with information for their benefit in this civil war, that he has not furnished them with arms, ammunition, provisions or other means for carrying on this war. And that on no occasion has he taken arms in behalf of the rebellion.

We would require him to make oath on all these points when he files application for land under the Homestead Law. No loyal citizen would hesitate to take such an oath, and no other citizen should take it.

We have seen it stated that there are likely to be disloyal emigrants from Missouri who having been defeated in their rebellious movements in that State, whose paths have been marked by desolation and murder in endeavoring to crush the loyal citizens of Missouri—are on their way to the Pacific coast. We do not desire that the munificence of Government shall be extended to them, or to those who have gone with them, as all were striving for the destruction of the Government, save taking the field in behalf of the rebellion.

And we would further say—that, should it appear hereafter that any have taken false oaths to secure Government lands, on conviction before the proper courts they should forfeit all such lands and the improvements on them, and be subject to the pains and penalties of perjury.

The Advertiser is thus answered. The nation does not desire that any political traitor shall pass into the possession of lands as a citizen under the Homestead Law.

This rebellion will be put down and the nation consolidated in all its former grand proportions—but [illegible] and traitors must not be forgotten. [illegible] traitors as [illegible] would be likely to [illegible] all our nation [illegible] engaged in a foreign war. They would then be without [illegible] as any [illegible] against our Government and nation. Not six months ago when war was [illegible] to be [illegible] England [illegible] [illegible] people on this Coast who would join England in that anticipated war. And though this declaration was made by the British Govern-ment [illegible] and [illegible] this declaration was [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] of the Portland [illegible] answer at [illegible] treason thus [illegible] in [illegible] Oregon and Washington [illegible].

Now we repeat that the lands of the United States should not be given as means to aid treason.

The National lands can now be entered by loyal citizens, native or foreign born, and it is the loyal and each loyal citizen to build up happy homes, and bless the President that has made them to loyal American citizens!

Young men! Poor men! Widows, [illegible] Rest? to have homes of your own!

Eastern News

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Senate has confirmed Henry Connelly of New Mexico as Governor of that Territory.

Congress during the session just ended appropriated about $800,000,000, including $[illegible]00,000,000 for the army, and $[illegible]00,000,000 for the navy.

Among the important bills postponed by the House are the following: For the admission of Western Virginia; for a uniform system of bankruptcy; also creating a Commission to ascertain the losses incurred by loyal citizens from the appropriation of their property by the United States; also, a bill appropriating $200,000,000 for the emancipation of the slaves in the border States.

The Senate took no definite action upon the bill abolishing the franking privilege, or the bill for the repeal of the laws allowing mileage. The House bill providing for the discharge of State prisoners also failed in the Senate.

A long list of Acts have been signed by the President. Among them is one authorizing the issue of postage and other Government stamps as currency, and prohibiting under a penalty banks and other corporations from issuing notes below the denomination of one dollar.

NEW YORK, July 22d.—A Newbern North Carolina letter of the 14th says "Hamilton's, North Carolina, was captured on the 9th by three of our gunboats and a company of Hawkins' Zouaves under Captain Holmes. It was defended by a regiment of rebel cavalry supported by a strong force of infantry and artillery, and a rebel fort which commanded the river there. There were numerous masked batteries along the river, and also a rebel steamer filled with sharpshooters. While the regiments attacked the men in the batteries the Zouaves advanced on the town, accompanied by detachments from the gunboats. The fort was taken by a charge and also the town. The rebel steamer was captured by the gunboats, whose fire drove her occupants overboard. We had only one man killed, but quite a number wounded. The victory is of importance, inasmuch as it clears the way to Weldon. It is impossible to estimate the loss of the enemy, who said they left forty or fifty dead on the field.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2[illegible].—Gen. Colton, Chairman of the Union Democratic State Central Committee repudiates in a card the action of sub-committee in proposed fusion with Republicans. He recommends all Democrats to abstain from this fusion.

Steamer Golden Age arrived with Senator Latham and $1,000,000 in legal tender notes for Government purposes.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Specials to the New York papers say: Advices from Warrenton to this evening report that Gen. Hatch is stated to have reached Charlottesville, and cut off the last important source of rebel supplies. These prompt movements and Pope's recent orders inspire admiration for him among all men. In obedience to the spirit of Pope's instructions, the rich aristocratic rebels of Warrenton have already been placed under contribution for the support of the National Army. Leading families have received notice that all their spare bedding will be required for our sick soldiers. All the unoccupied rooms in their mansions, and if necessary, the entire building, will be used as hospitals.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 22.—Governor Curtin has issued a stirring proclamation, calling for volunteers for 20 regiments now in the field, the former for nine months and the latter for twelve. The Governor trusts to citizens to contribute the funds to provide a bounty equal to that paid in the adjoining States.

CAIRO, July 22.—The guerrilla raid into Indiana seems to have been greatly exaggerated. A small band crossed at Newburg, where they committed a series of robberies. They then retired to the river. Efficient measures have been taken to guard against a repetition of the outrage.

NEW YORK, July 22.—A Washington dispatch to the Times says: Information has been received from several States showing that under the last call upwards of 50,000 men have been enlisted. Two and three full regiments are forming. It is now believed that a sufficient force for present emergencies will soon be in the field.

Arms, etc., for five Louisiana regiments had arrived at New Orleans, and the organization had commenced with a prospect of success.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Specials to New York papers say: It is stated that the President has called a meeting of all the Generals to whom Washington is accessible. The Confiscation Bill is to be laid before them, and the President's determination on points left to his discretion to be explained. Those who are not willing to enforce the law in letter and spirit, promptly and cheerfully, are to have leave to resign.

It is now positively known that the President under the advice of Gen. Scott and with the acquiescence of McClellan has called Halleck to Washington to act as General-in-Chief of the armies of the United States. He will have the control of operations in the field, thus relieving Stanton from his official business.

John S. Phelps of Missouri has been appointed Military Governor of Arkansas with full powers to establish the authority of the Government therein in accordance with the Constitution.

Foreign News.

The Times urges that the fighting before Richmond must have been of the utmost importance. McClellan's position we cannot but be precarious, and the Confederates are strong enough to hold their position in Virginia for a term that may be indefinitely prolonged.

The Times bitterly denounces the tariff, because of its injurious effects upon England in particular and Europe in general.

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, July [illegible].—The War Department issued orders to the military commanders of Virginia, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas to seize in an orderly manner, and use any property, real or personal, necessary or convenient to their several commands for supplies or other military purposes. [illegible] Military and naval commanders [illegible] as laborers within and State [illegible] of African descent in numbers that can be advantageously used, giving reasonable pay for their labor. Accounts to be kept so [illegible] of whom property and labor are taken [illegible] that compensation may be made [illegible].

Gen. Halleck has been ordered by the President to take command as General-in-Chief, and to repair to the Capital as soon as possible with safety to the Department now under his command.

On the second [illegible] cavalry are reported to [illegible] the vicinity of Richmond, Tenn. One [illegible] infantry arrived at [illegible] same date. [illegible] have gone up Green river to protect Union residents. Gen. Smith is [illegible] in pursuit of Morgan.

Reports from Richmond, Va., state that Gen. Huger is relieved of his command, and appointed General of Ordnance. The Richmond papers recommend hanging pardoned men who may be captured.

The Richmond Examiner claims the capture of 10,000 Federals in the late battles. It is said Jackson is [illegible] near Shenandoah Valley with 70,000 men.

Gen. Schofield issued orders in Missouri for the immediate organization of militia for the purpose of exterminating guerrillas. Every able bodied man to report in six days, bringing all arms to be procured. Arms not in loyal hands to be taken for public defense.

Reports from Fredericksburg indicate Union stampede from there. From developments we are warranted in the belief that fears are at the rebel capital that there is to be a change in the policy of the future conduct of the war.

The Enquirer says that whatever the rebels determine to do, whether to assault McClellan in his present position and invade Maryland, or to advance against Washington, an army is raised and recruited in numbers to tell.

Reports from New Orleans state that a portion of the squadron besieging Vicksburg has been ordered down the Mississippi and removed to Com. Wilkes' flotilla in James river. Reports [illegible] believing that it is a speedy and overwhelming advance on Richmond with land and naval forces.

Reports from Louisville state Gen. Dumont's troops have arrived at Stoneham in pursuit of Morgan, whose forces are rapidly crossing the Cumberland.

Murfreesboro is now free from rebels, with sufficient force to repel any attack.

Rebel sympathizers, claiming to know, say that Stonewall Jackson, with a large force, will be sent up the Shenandoah Valley to keep Pope in check. A small force will be sent to Newport News to prevent the removal of recruits, while 50,000 will be sent down James river below McClellan, and the commander at Richmond will be marched rapidly on Washington. This is considered sensational.

Col. Phelps, appointed Military Governor of Arkansas, left yesterday, 24th.

Pope issued orders to different Generals in his army to seize all horses in their vicinity, especially in Culpepper county, and all stores and supplies not absolutely needed for subsistance of inhabitants.

A meeting of City Council of Baltimore was held to consider the resolution appropriating a bounty to volunteers. Secession members of lower branch rejected it. Considerable excitement resulted. Several of them were assaulted by the crowd on leaving the chamber. They were protected by the police to their houses.

New Orleans, July 10th.—The city is unusually healthy and quiet.

Second Dispatch.

Accounts from Arkansas represent that rebels are gathering under McBride at Yellville, for a raid into Missouri. They are reported 7,000 strong, which is probably exaggerated.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Gen. Butler at New Orleans, has sequestered the property of Gen. Twiggs, to be held to await action of the United States Government.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The Nashville Union of the 16th, speaking of the fight at Murfreesboro a few days since, says the Michigan regiment was taken completely by surprise, and were in the hands of the enemy almost before a gun was fired.

The camp of the 3d Minnesota was a mile from the camp of the Michigan. Our killed was 80 to 100, with a few wounded. Hewitt's battery fought gallantly till the ammunition was spent. Prisoners were probably taken South on the Chattanooga. Col. Buffield was mortally wounded.

WASHINGTON, July 18th.—General Halleck has issued special field orders, saying in giving up command of the troops constituting the army of the Southwest, he desires to express his high appreciation of their behavior and of conduct which they have exhibited on all occasions.

NEW YORK, July 18th.—Dispatches from Augusta, Ga., dated 5th, say passengers from New Orleans to Mobile report the Maine regiment mutinied on being ordered to Vicksburg; two men were shot before it was quelled.

ST. LOUIS, July 18th.—Officers from Gen. Curtis state his artillery, numbering 80 pieces, was brought through to Helena, Ark., safely.

Gen. Halleck arrived to-day. He leaves in a day or two for Washington.

Escape of 150 Convicts from the California State Prison

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22d.

Capt. Simpson has just arrived from the State Prison, with intelligence that to-day, at 10 o'clock, 150 convicts made their escape, carrying off the Lieut. Governor with them. They were fired upon by the guard and some killed. Chief Burk had telegraphed to Gov. Stanford for authority to charter a steamer and send a force after the fugitives. There is great excitement here. The convicts seized a cannon and threw it into the bay. Guardsman Quinn refused to fire the other as it would endanger Chellis. The convicts captured this cannon also and carried it away with them. The steamer Contra Costa has been chartered, and will proceed immediately with forty dragoons [illegible] all [illegible] [illegible] immediate pursuit [illegible] the convicts [illegible].

SAN FRANCISCO, July [illegible].—[illegible] escaped [illegible] Lieut. Governor [illegible] the escape [illegible] a high [illegible] his watch [illegible] his diamond [illegible]. The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

ARRIVAL.—The Bark Harriet W. Almy was towed up to this city Monday evening last by steamer Cowlitz from St. Helens, to which latter place she had made her way from the mouth of the river by her own sails. The Almy brings 550 tons of assorted merchandise but we are sorry that a copy of her manifest could not be obtained, as Capt. Brown unintentionally neglected to reserve a copy of the original filed at the Custom House at Astoria. She made a quick trip and had a pleasant voyage.

TRIAL TRIP.—The new steamer Spray, recently built at Des Chutes, made a trial trip last Saturday, which proved entirely satisfactory to all concerned, and demonstrated the entire fitness of this boat for the Upper Columbia trade. She is one hundred and twenty-five feet long, and her measured capacity is eighty tons burden. She draws nearly two feet less water than any other boat on that trade, and her speed is said to be superior.

THEATRE.—The play of "The Jacobite" was very well done last [illegible] and the singing of Miss Virginia [illegible] and Miss Belle Divine fully equal to any previous occasion. The programme offered for to-night promises to be highly entertaining, and we may expect a rich treat, as Mr. Wood will be assisted by the presence of two additional artistes, who are more familiar with his general style. The whole troupe will appear in the burlesque semi tragedical play of Shylock or the Merchant of Venice Preserved.

GEN. MCCLELLAN—will probably be the name of the new boat in course of construction at Vancouver—a very appropriate name. We learn that this boat is fast being completed, and may be expected to greet our waters in the course of ten or twenty days at most. "Bully" for Vancouver enterprise.

CORRECTION.—The statement in our article of yesterday relative to the time of holding the next Annual State Fair of Oregon, should have read, "the last Tuesday of September" instead of October. A change has been made by the Board of Managers, fixing the time one week earlier than at first determined upon.

FROM WALLA WALLA.—We take the following items from the Statesman of July 26th:

We have no definite returns from Nez Perces and Idaho counties. Report says the Union Democratic tickets are elected in both these counties by large majorities. Sanford Owens is elected Sheriff of Nez Perces, and J. J. Standefer Sheriff of Idaho county. Capt. R. Bledsoe is elected Joint Councilman for Nez Perces and Idaho counties. No returns from Spokane and Missoula.

Four companies of the Oregon Cavalry will leave the post to-day or to-morrow—three of them to meet the in-coming emigration, and the other for Lewiston.

Green corn has been abundant in our market during the past week. A number of fine fields of corn in this vicinity will compare favorably with the crops produced in the middle and western States.

A communication from C. H. Hall is crowded out of to-day's paper. It will appear to-morrow.

☞ The attention of the community is respectfully solicited to the New Goods arrived by the last steamer—embracing a full line of Ladies' Silk Mantillas, French Bonnets, Florals, new style Hats, Challis, Poplins, and Debeges, together with a full assortment of Gents New Style thin Cassimere suits, Fancy Sacks, Broadway styles of Business Suits, and the very latest fashion of Parisian and New York Fancy Summer Panama Braid and Light Cassimere Hats. All the articles are now ready for sale, and can be seen at Harkers' New Building on First street, in the rear of Commercial Wharf.

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them useful for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup is the Greatest Panacea of the Age, for all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, &c., &c. It is agreeable to the taste, soothing, healing, strengthening; safe, simple and effectual far beyond any other preparation. REDINGTON & CO., Exclusive Agents,

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a [illegible] among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equaled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary appointment [illegible], his field of operation, although qualified [illegible] the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended [illegible]. Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, [illegible] opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the [illegible] certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in [illegible], please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. UNIONISM IN NORTHERN ALABAMA.—The demoralization of Beauregard's army, the defeat of Adams, and subsequent evacuation of Chattanooga, has had a splendid effect upon the people of Northern Alabama. Her leading men are giving daily evidence of what they intend to do, and were they satisfied of the fact that there was no possibility of a reaction in arms, their voices would be heard as in other days in behalf of the Union.

Conspicuous among the leading men of Northern Alabama stand the names of Jere Clemens and Nick Davis, both of whom were members of the Montgomery secession Convention. Both were elected as Union men and were sent there by the people to assist in staying the mad tide of political ruin then threatening the destruction of the State and the Union. They were elected by large Union majorities, backed up by a constituency determined to keep this portion of Alabama in the Union.

They attended the Convention, and by referring to the printed proceedings of said Convention you will find that Davis and Clemens took an active part in the proceedings, ending in Clemens voting for secession and Davis against it. Davis returned home, having fulfilled the wishes of his constituents, then relapsed into a quiescent state, and gradually passed over to secession. Clemens returned with a Major General's commission in the rebel army in his pocket and took the stump in direct opposition to his previous course. Before casting his vote in the Convention he remarked as follows: "I shall vote for the ordinance, but frankness and fairness requires me to say that I would not vote for it if its passage depended upon that vote. As matters now stand, my vote will not affect the decision of the question here, in one way or the other. The act you are about to commit is, in my opinion, treason, and subjects you, if unsuccessful, to all the pains and penalties pronounced against that highest political crime. I do not choose that any man shall put himself in danger of a halter, in defense of the honor and rights of my native State, without sharing that danger with him." Jere, in his own opinion, committed the overt act. True, he was never assigned any command, or had an army under him, yet he accepted and held a commission under the so called Confederate Government. Jere is satisfied that the South has no government, and is for the Union. Well, there is mercy for him, for the Federal Government is charitable, suffereth long and is kind. Clemens is within the pale of mercy, but that vote should have been no instead of yes.

THE IRISH BRIGADE.—We extract from the Irish American the following account of how Meaghers Irish Brigade conducted themselves at the battle of Fair Oaks, on the Chickahominy.

General Sumner rode up in front of the Eighty eighth (which was first in the melee), just as they were about to charge into the opening through which ran the railroad, the timber on the opposite side being held by a strong body of rebels, who were pouring in a withering fire, by which the regiments of Howard's and French's brigades had already been terribly cut up. It was the crisis of the fight; and General Richardson declared that if we lost the position it would have gone hard with the Union army. Sumner said, addressing the men: "Boys, I am your General, I know the Irish Brigade will not retreat." He put his hand up, and, touching his shoulder strap, continued: "I stake my position on you; if you run, I will have to run also, and tear these from my shoulders." Sergeant McCabe, of Company K, said: "General, we have never run yet, and we are not going to begin now." "I know it—I know it," said the General, as he rode off. The Eighty eighth gave a ringing cheer and dashed out into the open field. The enemy thought they intended to charge clear into the woods in which they were hidden, and so reserved their fire for the expected struggle; but when the Eighty eighth got as far as the railroad—a little better than half way across—they halted and poured in a volley so close and deadly, that when the woods were entered afterward every ten feet of the edge, and for several yards inwards, were strewn with dead and wounded rebels. A special Providence seems to have watched over the brigade, that they suffered so little in so deadly a contest.

FREEDOM FOR THE TERRITORIES.—The President has signed the bill prohibiting slavery forever in all the Territories of the United States. As now finally passed the bill reads:

To the end that Freedom may be and remain forever the fundamental law of the land in all places whatsoever, so far as it lies within the power or depends upon the action of the Government of the United States to make it so, therefore

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in any of the Territories of the United States now existing, or which may at any time hereafter be formed or acquired by the United States, otherwise than in punishment of crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted.

Prentice says: The rebels have immense energy, but it has all settled in their legs.

A doctor went to bleed a dandy, who languidly exclaimed: "Oh, doctor, you're a perfect butcher!" "[illegible]," rejoined the doctor, "Oh, yes, I am used to sticking calves."

The Confederates say that we have violated all law in our treatment of them. Well, if we have broken the law, let them sue us. If they can't sue for nothing else they can sue

GEN. MILROY AND OUR BRAVE SOLDIERS.—General Milroy is a man often mentioned in this department. He is an old specimen of an American. Standing about six feet four in his high, he towers above his men with commanding physical force. His face is square, with a reddish gray beard covering, but not hiding, a small mouth of singular directness and decision. He speaks hesitatingly, and is evidently not a fast or quick thinker. A nervous sensibility or sensation of fear, never came into his composition. So when his name was mentioned on the day of battle as to leading the advance, he replied:

"Oh yes, let me do it. I will go ahead—yes! —— [illegible] all my boys I'll fix em."

"There is no trouble about your going ahead, Gen. Milroy, but you are in danger of going too far."

"But I won't—this time, General, I'll obey orders strictly."

So Milroy went ahead. At about three o'clock of that afternoon I saw him in a wheat field, pointing over the grain tips into the woods. In a moment the leaden grain fell like iron stalks, and the air was full of hurtling sounds, and brave men fell bleeding and dying. In that glorious hell [illegible] patriot heroes there were no pale cheeks or livid lips, there was no unmanly shrieks of pain. "Put me down gently, boys," said a wounded Captain of the Sixtieth Ohio, as his men rested for a moment bearing the shattered body to the rear. He lay quiet there in the shade, his soldiers, companions, countrymen, may be turned again to the shock of arms, bursting shell and whizzing bullet.

Oh, but our soldiers are noble brave men! I speak of the Americans more especially, for I have seen them under fire coolly brave, determined. I am proud of them, and glory in them. No eloquence of the historian pen can ever do them justice. No poet is worthy to sing their praise.—Correspondence of N. Y. Tribune.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—Chief Justice Turner of Nevada Territory lately delivered what the News says was a fine lecture at Placerville. In speaking of the rebellion and its prospects he said:

"In one of those border raids, so common in the days of the Edwards, from Scotland into the English Highlands, the leader of the aggressors was a celebrated Lord of the House of Douglas, most gentle in peace, most gallant in war, and as he received a wound in battle which he felt must be fatal he turned to his attendant and said, 'There is a prophecy in our family that a dead Douglas will win a field, and I believe its fulfillment is at hand. Take my banner, carry it to the front, and let your battle cry be Douglas, Douglas!' The leader, saying this, expired, and following the banner and battle cry, the host rushed on and were victorious. I have thought this incident had its counterpart in our own times. In the commencement of this conflict for a Nation's life, a modern Douglas, before he untimely fell, gallantly defending a country he loved, exclaimed almost with his latest breath, 'He who cannot forget party and platforms now is not worthy the confidence of honest people', and the great host of Union men all over this fair land, catching up this sentiment as their battle cry and rushing forward crying 'Douglas, Douglas!' as they go, march on to certain triumph."

MARYSVILLE, June 3d, 1856

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but am well with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks as you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken [illegible] thought you would be able to cure me [illegible] might be able to do something [illegible] my back and head and strengthen my [illegible] so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcer from my throat, and the entire stoppage of the emissions which you said were principally the cause of [illegible] I can hardly tell you which is the greatest [illegible] my surprise for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be [illegible] you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours,
THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became so chronic [illegible] to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown to the ground without the slightest warning; and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries [illegible] and soon learned to look upon those who [illegible] or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. With [illegible] having previous to my affliction [illegible] the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt [illegible] a physician and by recommendation, called [illegible] Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, [illegible] to reward him for his services; regardless [illegible] however he at once undertook my case, and with [illegible] I was once more restored to perfect health. [illegible] the boon which I enjoy at present and [illegible] my indebtedness, I consider it [illegible] to make the case public, in [illegible] medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
